Choosing a new handbag is difficult. Rebecca Willis of The Economist's Intelligent Life magazine recently suggested that this is because we don't just carry a bag; we inhabit it... How true! Here are some colourful ideas from Swiss designers to help you find your new companion.

Griesbach

A Griesbach bag is demure and sophisticated with high quality leather made in Switzerland. Behind the brand are sisters Katka and Zuzka Griesbach, who inject passion into their designs.

EnVoyage

With the luxurious feel of French calf leather, EnVoyage's Darcy bag is classy and spacious. It will be available at Leder Locher and Rive Gauche from April in two colours: light grey and bleach sand.

Bally

Last year Bally teamed up with the Swiss artist Olaf Breuning to create a second chapter in the 'Bally Love' story. The result are bright and playful designs, which will be available from April.
